Gaetano Costa Restaurant & Afternoon Tea

Excellent restaurant near via Veneto. The restaurant serves about 55 people in the main hall which, upon request, can be divided into three separate areas and reserved. Two other small rooms, intended for special events, can be found downstairs in the modern area of the cellar, a mix of contemporary and transparency in an area of Rome in which you can't find avant-garde design.

Gaetano Costa's culinary style reflects strong technique, high creativity and Mediterranean spirit along with excellent Italian ingredients. The wine cellar includes about 300 wines that provide a thorough picture of wine production in Italy. The only international exception is a careful selection of Champagne.

Afternoon Tea: The chef wants his restaurant to also serve as an escape from the busy Roman afternoons. With this intent he has created the Afternoon Tea, a time devoted to tea in its most valuable declinations. Costa has selected several varieties of tea leaves from China, India, Japan and Vietnam to serve from 4 to 7 p.m.

Gaetano Costa has cooked to famous people like Luciano Pavarotti, Bill Gates and Liza Minnelli, and they have enjoyed the creations of the chef. It is a relatively new restaurant but it has years of experience, study and passion for cooking.
